FILM SCREENING
'Back on Track: Rebuilding the Waupaca Train Depot'
Directed by Max Hauser and produced by Emmy award winner Ron Scott

Tuesday, March 11th
6:00pm-8:00pm
Community Room

Back on Track: Rebuilding the Waupaca Train Depot chronicles the remarkable saga of Mike Kirk, a devoted model train enthusiast whose unwavering determination, along with the support of a dedicated circle of family and friends, spearheaded the decades-long restoration of the long-abandoned train depot nestled in the heart of rural Waupaca.

Conference room

First Tuesday and fourth Tuesday of every month

Welcomes all different genres of writing including fiction, non-fiction, poetry and even blog post features. At our meetings, we say our hellos and chat about what we're working on, what we're excited about and what we're struggling with. This is not a critique group. Some meetings will be peer editing and revising. Some special author or publishing guests may attend to offer insight!

FIBER ARTS CLUB

Do you enjoy knitting, crocheting, cross-stitch, embroidery, or other fiber arts? Bring your work-in progress, share some patterns and enjoy the company of other makers. Have a friendly discussion while you work on your projects.

Join us some Thursday nights 6-7pm
