The Library circulates video games that have a variety of ratings, from E for Everyone, to T for Teen and M (Mature: content that may be suitable for persons 17 and older). Because our staff does not monitor the choices that a child under the age of 18 makes, just as with other audiovisual materials such as DVDs, we suggest that parents may wish to be aware of what games their child borrows from the Library as well as the fine is $1.00 per day per item. Video games may be borrowed for 14 days.

Please check one of the following to give access to video game materials at the Jack Russell Memorial Library. You may choose one, two or all three options.
